comes with very poor grace after Kennedy's announcement in the Pittsburgh Post recently that he would make all his opponents come to 135 pounds in the future. Kenny can do 133 easily. The club offered Kennedy the match later at 138 pounds, but Mason holds out for catch weights. Kenny has agreed to let the Pittsburgher weight 140 at the ringside and if this is not satisfactory, further negotiations will be dropped. It looks as thought Kennedy can't trot in the light weight class any more.

BRIDGEPORT ROAD RACE.

H. Dobson, a Wheeling Rider, Won

First and Time Prize. The road race at Bridgeport last even ing, which was pulled off under the auspices of the fair and festival being given in that city by the firemen and Bridgeport Lodge No. 10 O. U. A. M., was very exciting and proved to be one of the most successful races ever occur-ring in this vicinity. The route was out the national pike and return, a total distance of four and six-tenth miles, and the time was remarkably fast. H. Dobson, of Wheeling, won first place and time prizes, making the distance in 12 minutes and 45 seconds, but owing to arrangements one man could not take both, and in case the above should occur the rider would receive the time prize. W. C. Kunkle, of St. Clairaville, started four seconds back of the scratch and made an excellent ride and had it not been for taking a header would certainly have received first place; as it was he finished fifteenth. The following is the list of riders, their handleaps and time, H. Dobson, Wheeling, time prize, time 12:45.

Jean Bereaud Captures Brookdale Handicap in Hot Finish.

NEW YORK, June 5.-Jean Bereaud and Imp measured strides in the Brook dale handicap to-day at Graverend and Jean Bereaud won after a stirring struggle from flag fall to finish. The race was at one mile and a furlong and only four horses paraded. Charentus and Prince McClung, with the others making up the field. They were sent off on the first break to a good start Jean Bereaud was on the rall with Imp next and they came down past the stand like a team running head and head. Going up the back stretch Jean Bereaud showed in front by half a length. Rounding the far turn Imp moved up on even terms and they came into the stretch head and head. Then for a few strides the black mare's head showed in front. At the last sixteenth pole Bereaud got his head in front and O'Connor drew his whip on the black mare. She responded gamely, but at the weights Jean Bereaud proved the bet-ter and he rushed across the line a neck in front while the crowd cheered them both to the echo. At no time during the entire journey were they more than half
